If you're so confident that you've won, there IS a way you can expedite this issue:

Make a voluntary appearance in the case.

Technically, you don't HAVE to show up in the case until I do what is known as "service of process." Well, that's taking longer than normal because you're an international defendant.

But, if you were to appear in the case of your own accord, that would save me a lot of time & money, but it would also allow you to get this case thrown out quicker. It's a win-win for both of us.

You don't even have to mail anything in, using postal mail. You can literally do it online, and you don't even need a lawyer to do it!!! Yes, you can literally do it on your own, and entirely online! Here, check this out: <https://www.cand.uscourts.gov/cases-e-filing/cm-ecf/setting-up-my-account/ecf-registration-requirements/> ("Effective May 1, 2020, and until further notice, pro se parties with existing cases may register to become ECF users and may file documents electronically without first obtaining a judge's permission").

Then, you can ask the judge to issue me a steep fine because I keep abusing the DMCA even after I've been told to fuck off, and you can do it a lot quicker than if I have to do service of process.

C'mon! What are you afraid of? You've already won, haven't you?!

If you keep abusing the DMCA reports with your shitty fucking videos that noone watches I'll be the one to sue you. You're fucking pathetic, reviewing your content is in itself "Fair Use" as it's criticism and A REVIEW OF YOUR SHITTY CONTENT.

It's unbelievable that even after the court told you to fuck off you continue to risk a Youtube/Twitch Account suspension for abusing the report system.

Kind Regards & Go fuck yourself.
